Name Origin: Like the naval officer and War of 1812 hero who battled the British enemy on Lake Erie, this brew is both distinctive and highly decorated.

Style Origin: The Bow Brewery in London exported this particular version of pale ale to the multitude of British soldiers, colonial administrators and settlers in India. Its high potency and high level of attenuation reduced chances for spoilage and made it a strong candidate for shipping.

Flavor: Medium-bodied and well hopped with a dry, fruity finish

Ingredients:

MALT

Harrington 2-Row Base Malt: Allows color and flavor from other specialty malts to come through; makes for very clean beer

Caramel 30: Small amount contributes to color, flavor and body

HOPS

Simcoe: Unique, non-traditional bittering hop; provides high levels of bitterness with smoothness

Fuggle: Traditional English hop for flavor in English ales; little hop bitterness, but adds complexity to beer's large hop profile

Cascade: Popular in American pale ales; provides citrusy/grapefruit aroma and flavor

Pairs With: Spicy ethnic dishes, buffalo wings and bold, sweet desserts

Shelf Life: 90 days
