Name Origin: An homage to Patrick Conway, grandfather of co-owners Patrick and Daniel and a Cleveland policeman who directed traffic near the Brewery for 25 years.

Style Origin: Second only to dry stout as Ireland's other most distinctive brew, red ale was first made popular by the G.H. Lett Brewery of Enniscorthy, County Wexford, Ireland.

Flavor: Notable toasty flavor derived from lightly roasted malt

Ingredients:

MALT

Harrington 2-Row Base Malt: Allows color and flavor from other specialty malts to come through; makes for very clean beer

Crystal 77: Contributes to color and adds sweeter aroma and flavor

HOPS

Northern Brewer: Traditional bittering hop for this type of ale; complements assertive flavors of ales

Hallertau: U.S. version of classic German noble hop; contributes mild bitterness and fine aromas; added for complexity

Fuggle: Traditional English hop for flavor in ales; blended with Hallertau, which features similar characteristics

Pairs With: Corned beef, shepherd's pie and stews

Shelf Life: 90 days
