BEHIND THE NAME:

Dortmunder Gold earned its name after winning its 1st gold medal at the Great American Beer Festival in 1992. Previously it was called "The Heisman" after John Heisman, whose childhood home is located near our brewery. Co-formulated with Master Brewer Thaine Johnson (whose handwritten notes appear in our label art), Dort continues to win over judges and beer enthusiasts around the world.

ABOUT THE STYLE:

During the mid-19th century, seven breweries within the city of Dortmund, Germany began brewing beers in the same manner, resulting in what we now know as the "Dortmunder" style. With the flavor and sweetness of a German-style Helles Lager and the bitterness of a German-style Pils, this accessible style is known for its balance.
